

Claim-sensitive ablations

Higher-order fitting creates false candidates; longer holdouts keep only the certified quadratic identities and persistent empirical leaks.

Order-cap sensitivity

Long-holdout stability

exact recurrence sparse subsequence leak prefix fit selector shadow failure no candidate